ABSTRACT

Drawing for Animation and Visual Effects is one of four art courses offered at the Computer Graphics - Engineering Animation study program at the Faculty of Technical Sciences in Novi Sad, Serbia, in addition to Free Hand Drawing, Storyboard and Elements of Artistic Expression. This course provides an opportunity for the acquisition of basic skills, knowledge and terms in the discipline - drawing, and its purpose is to assist and facilitate the study of animation as a field. This paper presents the structure of the subjects Drawing for Animation and Visual Effects, which provides the students of technical orientation, future engineers of Computer Graphics, with a connection to the artistic aspect of animation.
